

HELP US MAKE HISTORY!

The Italian American Veterans Museum has been faithfully honoring the military contributions of Americans of Italian descent since we opened our doors in 2006.

Our exhibits explore the American Revolution, Civil War, World Wars I and II, and the Korean and Vietnam Wars, and shine the spotlight on weaponry, uniforms, patches and insignia, souvenirs of war, letters from the front, military art and so much more.

Our library features books, films, and oral histories devoted to military conflicts throughout American history, and the role that Italian Americans have played in those conflicts.

And our 2012 documentary, "5,000 Miles From Home," earned a half-dozen national Telly awards and a pair of Midwest Emmys for its stirring account of the impact that World War II had on the Chicago-area Italian-American community.

The IAVM is run entirely by volunteers, and every dime we raise is used to cover crucial costs such as rent and insurance, advertising and promotion, and material and labor for the construction of exhibits.

We invite the community to support this worthy cause by becoming a member of the IAVM. An annual donation of $30 or more includes a one-year subscription to Fra Noi, and a donation of $100 or more also includes a complimentary DVD of our documentary.
