Veterans Day is right around the corner, and there's no better way to set the stage for this heartfelt holiday than with a stirring and entertaining concert by one of Illinois' remarkable military bands.

The Illinois Army National Guard's 144th Army Band is a talented group of military musicians from across Illinois as well as Indiana. Known to the public as the Lincoln Land Brass Band, it is a traditional brass band and more. The 14-member ensemble also includes percussionists, woodwinds and a vocalist who perform in a variety of styles. Their hour-long concert will feature patriotic pieces and traditional marches along with a mix of pop covers and music from other genres.

The performance will be staged in the building next door to the Office Center, where the museum is located. Ample parking is available behind the Italian Cultural Center, 1621 N. 39th Ave., and at the corner of Division and 37th.

Doors will open at 1:30 p.m. and the concert will begin promptly at 2 p.m. Light refreshments will be served before and after the performance and the museum will be open for viewing afterward. Seating is limited, and reservations are a must! Call 708-338-0690 and leave your name, phone number and the number of people in your party.
